

Familial links:

The following associations/interactions support the familial relationships of the children of Benjamin and Mary (Boxall) White.

Research note: The ages provided on census, marriage and death records varied widely. The ages provided on earlier records were more reliable than the ages provided on later documents, which were sometimes up to 10 years different. The interactions between the children helped to ensure we were following the right families.

John White: living in Brantford, Brant Co. in 1851/52 and 1861 census -- same location as Susan (White) King; his orphaned niece through marriage (Elizabeth Webb) was brought up by Mary (White) Bearinger.
