

Your Great Grandfather Pratt rented the same Farm as your Grandfather Pratt, Barnets Farm 7 Miles near Petworth ^{East} ~~West~~
Sarah Halstead Wife of John Pratt, died March 1847 aged 76 yrs

John Pratt died Dec 1857. both were buried in Woolavington Church Yard, England.

Your Great Grand ^{father} ^{great} mother Pratt were quiet respectable people & your Mother, Mother & Father were pious & good living people & sets a good example to their children.

Your great grandfather Henry Newman son of Mr John Newman a cartman Farmer on the South Downs between Goudern & Pitt, Down Hill. He was equal to his Wife in point of Birth & Fortune but he was a thoughtful & extravagant man. When first married they lived on what was called Dog's Farm ^{not far from} Woolavington, but in ^{later} life bought a small farm in South Bersted near Pagham Sussex as age crept on he left it to his son Henry Newman to manage

Dr John Buckner D.D. Lord Bishop of Chichester Palace Rector of the City Middlesex, was a cousin of your great Grand father Henry Newman. he used to pray the Bishop a visit now & then, at one of his visits he asked him the names of his children & to send their